Friday is an important feast, recalling St Columba who brought the gospel to Iona and the North. Here are two of his short prayers.

Be O Lord,

*a guiding star above me, a smooth path below me, a kindly shepherd behind me and a bright flame before me;
today, tonight and forever.*

Amen.

Alone

with none but thee, my God I journey on my way. What need I fear, when thou art near O King of night and day? More safe am I within thy hand, Than if an host didst round me stand.

TRINITY SUNDAY
www.immaculateconception.org.uk

THE LITURGY OF THE WORD TRINITY SUNDAY

1st Reading; Exodus 34:4 - 6; 8,9

The Lord God is full of tenderness and compassion

Canticle Daniel 3: 52 - 56

To you glory and praise for evermore
(after every line)

2nd Reading 2 Corinthians 13; 11 - 13

The grace of Jesus - The love of God - The fellowship of the Holy Spirit.

John 3:16-18

'For God so loved the world that he gave his only Son, so that we may not perish but may have eternal life.

A THOUGHT ON THE TRINITY

They looked down from heaven – the Father, Son and Holy Spirit – with love for their people - for all of us. They could see men and women of all races, colours, ages, faiths, holiness and sin. They knew help was needed for the human race and they waited a long time before the time was right. Prayer inserts us into our true space of belonging – into the community of the Trinity, and in that prayer we are called to bring this divine help to the human race. In love for me, God desires my salvation, my being made whole.

Saturday June 10th
(no admission before) 12.30
and ends 4.30(ish)

Setting up Friday evening. Any volunteers who can make it are asked to be at the church from 5pm onwards to set up stalls

Setting up Saturday morning. We need people to erect marquees, arrange tables and chairs and generally be here to help.

Lunch is served! Cathy Low and her team will provide lunch for every volunteer on a rolling basis in the chapel house.

Stall list. Is in porch inviting people to run particular stalls - can you check that this suits you and let us know?

Donations can keep coming in - be a HUGE help for bottle and tombola stall if here before end of day Thursday

Raffle tickets on sale today and also on day of fete - draw pulled at 3.45

Spread the word - the weather is looking promising so should be a good day to come and meet up and crash out together. There are flyers at the back of the church if you can get these out for us?

Funds raised will be principally to support our ongoing 'Together we make Maryhill' reach out programme - and to even develop it further after the summer months

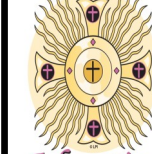

"Volunteers Week" From initiatives with Maryhill Ruchill Parish, we've over 40 new volunteers for our initiatives. It wouldn't happen without you and a year of work. Hopefully you got the invite to come for a curry on June 5th at the Polo Club, catch up with everyone & let us say THANKS!

Warm Welcome Update on Thursdays. Catherine and the team are planning to extend into the summer holidays - at least for first few weeks. This is to encourage families with young people to come around. The goals will be out and some activities and games provided, as well as snacks and lunch. Spread the word and come and catch up!

Catechesis course run by the university of Glasgow and the Archdiocese is recruiting new candidates. There is leaflet with information to collect; the parish will fund you. Those who have gone through the course; we ought meet sometime to chat? FYI Fr Jim has taught a module of this course since the beginning but has decided to step down-

Eucharistic Our devotional life

Adoration

We are going to reintroduce adoration on Thursdays in June. Anyone popping in for the warm welcome can also pop into the church for some quiet time of prayer
